FOREWORD

The workshop is concerned primarily with leadership and management issues. Other workshops and presentations effectively cover the technical aspects of architecture. The papers in the workshop cover a large number of the important leadership and management issues associated with being a software architect in a large organization.

Brian Berenbach, Len Bass
LMSA 2009 Program Organizers